

The 5th Annual Woodinville Skate Contest...

Proves Successful Again!!!!

The sun seems to shine in favor of the Seattle area skaters who return year after year to celebrate their skills at the Woodinville Annual Skate Contest presented by the Northshore YMCA and the City of Woodinville as part of the BFC 123 Skate Series.

This year, while some would say the world has cut back, showed no lack of enthusiasm or numbers as 60 skaters of all ages and abilities charged the many obstacles in the park with abandon. Surrounding the skate park were parents, grandparents, siblings and other happy spectators looking on in awe of what these talented young people performed June 28th at high noon! Those in attendance also enjoy a Game Crazy gaming table and face painting booth by the Gandstoms. It was a spectacular day!!

We want to thank our community for its continued support of the local skaters as well as the local shops and industry, who in very tight times, still came forward to provide great product for prize bags.

Huge thanks go out to: BFC, Ally Distribution, Mission Ridge, Freestyle, SnoCon, 35th, Manik, Cool Girl Decks, Spun Decks, NW Grom Fest, Skate Barn West, Rockstar, Nomadic, BC Surf and Sport, IPS, Grizzly Sports, Ollie Pop, Jones Soda, Khiro and Tail Devil, Spacecraft and Game Crazy.
