

FREE EDUCATIONAL WORKSHOPS OFFERED BY WOODINVILLE POLICE DEPARTMENT

Workshop 1—FRAUD Wed, 10/25 @ 7-9pm

Every year, thousands of people lose money to telephone scams. Scammers use exaggerated or fake prizes, products or services as bait. Have you ever received a call from someone claiming to be the IRS or Microsoft? Experienced the "grandson" scam? Learn about the signs of a scam such as travel packages, credit and loans and sham or exaggerated business and investment opportunities. Learn how to recognize a scam and protect yourself from being a victim.

Space is limited, register for free on Eventbrite: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/workshop-fraud-tickets-38640257049?aff=es2>.

Workshop 2—OFFICER INVOLVED SHOOTINGS Wed, 11/8 @ 7-9pm

A deputy is involved in a shooting and the news reports that the deputy has been placed on Administrative Leave. What does that mean? Follow the investigative process of an officer involved shooting from beginning to end. Video/audio from an actual case will be used.

Space is limited, register for free on Eventbrite: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/workshop-officer-involved-shootings-tickets-38640415523?aff=eac2>.

Workshop 3—TRAINING "TI" SIMULATOR Wed, 11/15 @ 7-9pm

The TI training simulator puts you into real life scenarios that law enforcement deputies deal with every day. Deputies from the King County Sheriff's Office Training Unit will bring the TI Training Simulator to this workshop and afford you the opportunity to go through this interactive TI Simulator.

Workshop 4—LAW ENFORCEMENT RESPONSE: MENTAL HEALTH CALLS FOR SERVICE

Mon, 12/11 @ 7-9pm

By the end of June this year, the Woodinville Police responded to approximately 75 calls for service concerning those with mental health concerns. These calls range from people suffering from suicidal thoughts/actions, folks calling for help regarding a family member experiencing a mental health crisis and 911 calls from citizens reporting their concern for someone "acting out in public" which is causing concern for their safety and the safety of others. We will talk about the types of mental health concerns we are currently facing and what law enforcement can and cannot do regarding our response to those experiencing mental health concerns. Currently, every Woodinville deputy has attended an 8-hour Crisis Intervention Training. This coming year all deputies will be required to attend 40 hours of Crisis Intervention Training.
