

The City of Woodinville PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, Public service is an honorable calling that involves a wide variety of volunteer roles and professions, including protecting our environment, improving transportation infrastructure, championing art and recreation, maintaining public safety, and performing administrative and management activities which are essential to efficient and effective operation of government; and
- WHEREAS, The public employees of the City of Woodinville are committed to exhibiting the highest standards of professional excellence, creativity, skill, and customer service; and
- WHEREAS, The dedicated volunteers who serve on City of Woodinville commissions inform and advise policymakers and are integral to the advancement of the quality of life that we enjoy here; and
- WHEREAS, Excellence in the delivery of public service helps keep Woodinville strong, prosperous, and a wonderful place in which to live, work, and visit; and
- WHEREAS, The City of Woodinville recognizes the generous contributions of time and talent by public employees and community volunteers, and the importance of the services they render to our daily lives.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mayor Gary Harris, Mayor of the City of Woodinville, Washington, on behalf of the Woodinville City Council proclaim May 2-8, 2021 as:

Public Service Recognition Week

in the CITY OF WOODINVILLE. Together we recognize the accomplishment and contributions of public employees and community volunteers here in Woodinville and around the world.

Signed this 4th day of May 2021.

Mayor Gary Harris